WAR CHIEFTAINS OF CHINA PLAN TO JOIN FORCES

Solution of Chinese Internal Strife Predicted by Father J.
A. Walsh, Catholic Priest

Interesting and Cosmopolitan Travelers on President Jefferson From Orient

Imminence of a coalition between the Chinese war chieftains
Chang Tso Lin and Wu Pei Fu
is forecast by the Very Rev.
James A. Walsh, Superior General, Catholic Foreign Mission Society, of Maryknoll, Ossining,
New York.

Father Walsh, who arrived in Victoria yesterday from the Orient
on board the liner President Jefferson, expressed confidence in an early solution of the internal difficulties faced by China.

Thinkers in the Orient, Father
Walsh claims, see in the predicted joining of forces by the two outstanding military leaders, stable government and a prosperous era
ahead of China.

Since Father Walsh arrived in China he has made a study of the internal situation. "Conditions in China" will be the subject of an address to be delivered in Seattle tonight by the Catholic divine. He was met at the boat here by Father Francis Caffery, of Seattle.

While here Father Walsh expressed regret that he had not time to pay his respects to the Rt. Rev.
Thomas O'Donnell, Bishop of Vancouver Island.

JAPANESE GIVE AID TO GENEVA ARMS DEBATE SUCCESS

Tokio, May 24.—The Japanese Government made formal disclaimer to-day of any intention of proposing any move for armament limitation apart from the present sessions of the preliminary disarmament commission at Geneva.

A Foreign Office statement declared Geneva reports crediting Japan with such inclination did not "in any way reflect the true intention of the Japanese Government."

The statement followed receipt of Geneva dispatches crediting to Japanese circles the information that Japan would like to participate in a triangular naval conference with the United States and Great Britain in case France and Italy could not be persuaded to join such a gathering.

DEBATE TAX CUTS

In well-informed circles it is asserted the Government of Premier Wakatsuki is keenly desirous of further naval reduction by international agreement, basing its hopes on continuation in office on the possibility of tax reduction through further naval limitations. However, the Government takes a stand similar to that of President Coolidge, that every aid and assistance should be given to make possible an agreement at Geneva.

"Japan is determined to cooperate with the powers to the best of her ability to realize a solution of the disarmament question," the Foreign Office statement said. "Consequently Japan earnestly hopes for the success of the preliminary conference at Geneva and entertains no prejudice with respect to any similar undertaking other than the present
conference."

"In these circumstances we need scarcely say the rumor emanating from Geneva that Japan has same new proposal does not in any way reflect the true intention of the Japanese Government."

Japanese military and naval experts hold little hope for an agreement for

NUNS DEPORTED FROM MEXICO

Mexico City, May 24.—Dispatches
from Vera Cruz say ten Roman Catholic nuns have arrived there from Mexico City under charge of a government agent. They will be deported aboard a Spanish steamship under the provisions of the constitution dealing with religion.

The Department of the Interior has issued instructions to all foreigners throughout Mexico to register with the authorities in the municipalities in which they live. They must give full details of their ages and occupations and state the purpose of their residence in Mexico.

AVIATORS FLYING FROM NEW YORK TO BUENOS AYRES

New York, May 24.—Bernardo Ducman, wealthy Argentine sportsman, and two companions hopped off in a flying boat from Miller Field, on Staten Island, at 7:04 a.m. to-day for Charleston,
S.C., on the first leg of a 5,100-mile flight to Buenos Ayres.

ISLAND MINES SHOW LARGE ADVANCE; PROSPECTORS FIND MANY PROMISING PROPERTIES

Development of the mining industry on Vancouver Island showed substantial progress during 1925, as compared with the previous year, according to the annual report of the Department of Mines, just issued by Hon. William Sloan, Provincial Secretary and Minister of Mines.

The review of mining conditions on Vancouver Island contained in the report was prepared by W. M. Brewer, resident mining engineer. He points out that the progress of the industry is best shown by the development work that has been done on a number of properties such as the Old Sport mine, Quatsino Sound, operated by the Coast Copper Company;

Two Japanese Airmen Killed; Planes Collided

BEACH SEARCHED FOR BODY OF WOMAN

Los Angeles, May 24.—Faithful followers of Aimee S. McPherson, noted pastor of the Angelus Temple here, paced more than fifteen miles of beach front to-day, keeping a constant watch for the ocean excitement that followed the body of their leader, who disappeared nearly a week ago while swimming in the surf at Ocean Park.

The patrol, made up of members of the congregation of the evangelist's church, was established yesterday with headquarters at Ocean
Park, and according to present plans
the vigil will be maintained for several days. Stretched out along the entire length of the Santa Monica Bay region, the guards stationed within halting distance of each other,
pace back and forth ceaselessly over the wet strand.

On the pier several hundred of Mrs. McPherson's followers, enraged by the display of a life-sized wax figure of their leader, stormed a concession, and until police interfered threatened to wreck the establishment and to do bodily harm to the concessionaire.

WITTENBACH HESITATES
Ex-Prince Rupprecht, who considered he is of more ancient lineage
than the Hohenzollerns, in a talk to a delegation of royalist nobles recently, however, said: "No I would not take the crown until beer is 20 pfennigs the stein." It is now 40.

In this way the former prince concluded a short explanation of his conviction that it would be useless for a Wittgenbach to remount the Bavarian throne until the chief economic difficulties had been surmounted.

"I could not lower the high cost of living, nor reduce taxation, nor find work for the unemployed," he is reported to have said in substance.

THREE PLANE ON Way From California To Alaska Coast

San Diego, Cal., May 24.—Headed by Lieut. Ben Wyatt, noted naval airman, three Leaning planes, which are to be used in the mapping of more than 40,000 square miles of the Alaska coast, left the North Island naval air station here shortly after 9 o'clock on route to San Pedro, first leg of the long flight to Ketchikan, Alaska, where the airman are to make their base.

In the air mapping expedition,
which is expected to require between three and four years, are seven officers and enlisted men, each an expert in his line.

Three Killed in Fight in Mexico

Mexico City, May 24.—Three men were killed yesterday when members of the soldier guard on a railway train revolted and attempted to rob the train. Loyal guards subdued the would-be robbers.

The train was proceeding between the stations of Vera Cruz and San Augustan when the robbery was attempted.

THOUSANDS JOINED IN I.O.D.E. EMPIRE DAY SERVICE SUNDAY

Schoolchildren Deposited Flowers on Queen Victoria's Statue During Simple But Impressive Service;
Band Concert in Afternoon Drew Thousands.

Inaugurated some years ago by the I.O.D.E. to keep green the significance of the May 24 celebration, the annual Empire Day service drew thousands of children and citizens to the Parliament Buildings yesterday morning. The occasion was most impressive in its simplicity and solemnity, the presence of the children adding a delightful note to the proceedings, which centred around the statue of Queen Victoria.

Marshaled by their teachers, the children of the public schools marched to the scene of the service and were grouped on the steps of the Parliament Buildings, with the girls of the High School choir in their picturesque middie costumes ranged at the topmost step.

In the foreground, grouped around the statue, were the standard-bearers
of the I.O.D.E. chapters, each bearing the Union Jack; representatives of the Municipal Chapter, I.O.D.E., School Cadets, and a contingent of Girl Guides and Boy Scouts flanking either side. On every hand stretched the vast crowd of citizens and visitants, making up one of the biggest assemblies ever seen at this service.

PLACING OF WREATHS
The Sea Cadets' band was in attendance and played throughout the service. Other Sea Cadets formed a guard of honor for Miss Helen Macdonald, honorary Provincial President of the I.O.D.E., who placed upon the plinth of the statue of Queen Victoria a beautiful bouquet of red roses on behalf of the Municipal Chapter.

It is interesting to note that the wreath was made by Miss Alice Pooley, the lovely blooms being gathered from a rose tree planted by her grandmother sixty years ago.

Other beautiful wreaths were placed upon the statue by Queen Kathleen, who was present with her attendants, and the Municipal Chapter.
The ceremony was a most impressive
one, the Army and Navy
Veterans, the Girl Guides and Boy Scouts, the Navy League of Canada, and other organizations.

CHILDREN'S TRIBUTES

From each class a little girl had been chosen to deposit a wreath or bou-quet, and the little white-frocks and flower-girls walked down to the plinth and placed her floral offering upon the plinth and returned to her place. After this all the children marched down in orderly file to the statue, and marched around it, the boys saluting as they passed, and returned to their places, the little ceremony implanting in the minds of the children as well as the adults

Confirmation Service At St. Andrew's Cathedral

Thirty Candidates Were Confirmed Yesterday by Rt. Rev. Bishop O'Donnell

The Feast of Pentecost was celebrated yesterday in St. Andrew's Cathedral. Large numbers approached the Holy Table during the early masses and were present at the Pontifical mass at 11 o'clock to witness the Confirmation of thirty candidates. Bishop O'Donnell was assisted by Rt. Rev. Monsignor Letorme, Fathers Silver and Deeley.

After the Pontifical mass and Confirmation, His Lordship administered the total abstinence pledge against intoxicating liquors to the candidates for Confirmation, till they reach the age of twenty-one.

The Bishop preached on the text, "And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they began to speak as the Holy Ghost gave them to speak." (Acts ii. 4). "Before Christ withdrew from the Apostles," said the preacher, "the course of His sermon, 'He delivered to them the important commission of teaching His doctrine to the whole world. All power is given to me in heaven and on earth. He said, go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you, and behold I am with all days even to the consummation of the world.' (Matt. xxviii. 19-20). His Lordship dwelt on the important words of the promise of Christ, 'Teach all things whatsoever I have commanded you,' and 'Behold I shall be with you all days even to the end of the world,' as fixing for all time the permanency of the religion established by Christ, its infallible security from error, because of the abiding presence of the God of truth Himself, and the divine assurance that we are not to be driven, in this vale of tears, here and there by every wind of doctrine and the vain and insane views of ignorant, unauthoritative and malicious men.

"Christ, promised, too," said the Bishop, "that He would send the Holy Ghost to His Apostles Who should abide with them forever and enable them to accomplish their glorious mission of giving the saving truth of God to the world until the end of time. 'I will send the Holy Ghost the Spirit of Truth, to teach you all things and to abide with you forever.'"

"On the tenth day after the glorious Ascension of Christ, body and soul, into heaven—this day, Pentecost—the heavens were opened and the Holy Ghost the third person of the Most Adorable Trinity, descended upon them. 'And they appeared to them parted tongues as it were of fire, and it sat upon every one of them; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost and began to speak in divers tongues according as the Holy Ghost gave them to speak.' Again, the preacher insisted on the fact that the preaching of God's word was according to the Holy Ghost and His instruction and not according to the fallible words of weak men and their mistaken interpretation of the sacred words of the Son of God, Jesus Christ.

The cowardice of the Apostles disappeared on the coming of the Holy Ghost. Peter who had denied Christ and the others who had fled into the night, now, under the power of the commission of Christ and the influence of the grace of the Holy Spirit of God, went forth bravely and preached penance and baptism for the remission of sins. The Lord cooperated with them and confirmed their words with signs and daily added to the Church such as should be saved (Mark xvi. and Acts ii. 47). The power of Truth and the Holy Ghost at length brought to them the condemnation of the world and they gave their lives in testimony of the Truth. They obeyed God rather than man, 'they went from the Council rejoicing that they were accounted worthy to suffer reproach for the name of Christ.'

His Lordship concluded by reminding the congregation, and especially those to whom he had just administered the Sacrament of Confirmation, that they had all received the Holy Ghost with His gifts and graces, and the Apostles on the first Pentecost, though not in the same visible and miraculous manner, 'Therefore,' he said, 'steadfastly and perseveringly endure the labor, fatigue and difficulties of a virtuous life for you are the temples of the Holy Ghost and the Spirit of God dwelleth in you. Avoid the occasions of sin. If your eye, your hand is a scandal to you, pluck it out, or cut it off. It is better to go into heaven maimed than to be cast into hell and wounded than to go into hell and maimed. No matter how near or how dear to you is a person, place of thing, if it is a cause of sin, avoid it, for it is for this, 'this is the will of God, your sanctification.'

The Bishop exhorted parents and all responsible for the spiritual welfare of any of the children, not to fail of any of God's impressions on the souls of His creatures. "Watch," said His Lordship, "over the reading and the company of your children. Keep them away from the picture-houses where, too often, not a remnant of morality and decency remains, where the tendency is to sexually suggestive, morally unwholesome, vulgar and degrading, and based upon themes picked from the moral garbage-tins of humanity. Give the children a Christian education and be proud of the fact that you sacrifice to do so. Said it is to be a Christian nation, in our public schools may be taught the lives, the wars, the amors of every god and goddess of pagan mythology but the name of Jesus Christ may not be taught or spoken in the classroom. The walls of the schoolhouse may show the pictures of the real or fabled heroes of Greece and Ancient Rome, but no picture of the Saviour of Men or His blessed Mother may be shown, lest some squeamish member of this Christian nation be sore offended."

ABIDING IN CHRIST

Sermon Preached Sunday Morning at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church By Rev. W. Leslie Clay, D.D.

"Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit except it abide in the vine; so neither can ye except ye abide in Me," etc.—John xv 4-10.

The circumstances in which these words were spoken precluded the use of the common-place or traditional platitudes, as rigorously as they excluded misleading phrases. Jesus was about to leave His disciples. In one very important sense His work was not done. Those whom He was leaving must carry it forward. His own inviolable nature, His love for His followers and His interest in the work bequeathed to them, made it imperative that only truth of the first importance should be spoken in that hour. So as they fondly clustered about Him, unforgettable words of encouragement and warning, mingled in love, tell like good seed upon the prepared soil of their hearts and minds. The most wonderful of all His words was, that while He was to be taken from them He was still to be with them. By one of His inimitable allegories, that of the vine and the branches, He showed how the intimate nature of His continued relation with them and how it was to be maintained. In a few masterly strokes He sets forth the chief characteristics and the results of that relationship.

The Christian life is more than an unflinching dependence on the Son of God. It is a conscious, sensitive communion with Him. It is being part of His very life; so that Christ and the disciple are no longer two independent entities but one living whole. The vine and the branches are not two separate entities but one. The vine without the branches is incomplete; it cannot bear fruit. The branches without the vine cannot live. Vine and branches together constitute one living, fruit-bearing whole. "I am the vine," said Christ, "ye are the branches." Neither is complete without the other.

Dr. Jowett in speaking of the relationship between Christ and the disciple, puts it thus: "One personality is embedded in another personality and receives from it an effluence which determines the trend and color of its life. Not through the weighing and assaying of grammatical ungues, nor by penetrating exegesis, are we going to pass into the fellowship of Christ, but by the all-discovering ministry of the surrendered life." Union with Christ then is more than a mental association with Him. It is a dedication of the will to Him by the absolute abandonment of self to the will of God. It is thus not a mechanical association. It is a vital union—a union of the very life.

How can such a union be effected? However ignorant we may be of the propagation of fruit trees or of the process of grafting, we at least know that no mere tying of a branch to a tree, bark to bark, would have any other effect than the withering of the branch. If it is to live and bear fruit, the branch must form a solid part of the tree—must become of one structure and life with the stem. The branch must be so cut through that its whole interior structure is laid bare, and all the channels that conduct the sap are exposed. Then an incision must be made into the very structure of the stem, upon which the branch is to be grafted, so that the sap channels of the branch may be in direct contact with the opened sap channels of the stem, that through them the sap of the stem may flow unimpeded into the branch. Such must be our union with Christ, our grafting into Him—a laying bare of our innermost nature, so that a vital connection may be made between these two. What we expect to receive by being thus united with Christ is His very life. We look for such intimate relations with Him that His principles, aims and sentiments become ours.

Even after the graft has been made the care of the husbandman is needed in order that the branch may abide in the vine, and that it may bring forth fruit. Two dangers still confront the graft—it may become loosened, or it may run to wood and leaves. These dangers are averted, on the one hand, by carefully excluding from the point of contact any disturbing foreign factor or influence, and, on the other, by the free exercise of the pruning knife. By similar means, protection against that which is foreign and inimical to the Christ life, and the ruthless elimination of natural extravagances, the soul that is united with Christ, graft in upon Him, is enabled to abide in Him and to bear, not wood nor leaves, but fruit unto life eternal.

Such a vital union with Christ, the living and true vine, brings into one's life many benefits. Among its treasures fruits not the least precious are the least in present practical value, is a robust steadfastness, indifference, scorn, hatred, even open persecution will not disturb nor separate the believer from his Master. If opposition is met it simply affords an opportunity for exercising a greater reliance upon the Master, which in turn produces a still greater steadfastness of character, a fuller measure of fruitfulness. This was evidently the thought in St. Paul's mind when contemplating the benefits of our relation with Christ, he exclaimed, "I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor heights, nor depths, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ our Lord."

Making Canada a Great Nation

Sermon Preached at Sunday Evening Service at Metropolitan United Church by Rev. Dr. W. J. Sippell

"I am first and foremost for Canada. She is the land of my birthright and within her laws and liberties I have been privileged to live my life. Every man has a right to speak well of his native land."

"Breathe there a man with soul so dead Who never to himself hath said: 'This is my own, my native land! If such there be, go mark him well: Every true patriot should be able to say—'God Bless My Native Land! I pray for Canada, but I do more—I pray for all lands."

"Let all the nations see That men can brothers be, And that the world may be The wide earth o'er."

Canada is destined to be great. God's last experiment, it may be, in civilization. She has been built for great things.

CANADA IS ALREADY GREAT Great in area and material resources. The land of vast acres and great open spaces.

"From the Fundy tide, where tall ships ride, And the white fogs walk inland; To the Western Gate, by Georgia's strait, Where snow peaked ranges stand."

Four million square miles are here, 100 more than in U.S.A. God has set her between the seas. Here's the greatest undeveloped area in the Western World, and her material resources are great. Her possibilities in land, forest, mine and sea, make her glory to still lie in the future whereas for other empires their glory is of the yesterdays of their history.

Canada will become the playground of the world. With twelve great national parks and opportunities for many more; with lakes, rivers, mountains, valleys and plains unrivalled by any country in the world.

She has but nine million people, but she has room for ninety millions. And they will come some day to people our plains, develop our resources and reap great harvests in a fair land of promise and glory. Canadians are true Americans. She knows that America begins at the North Pole and not at Panama. Canadians have a seal for law and order for justice and right. No lynch law or Ku Klux Klan can abide on Canadian soil. She is not a land where violence and anarchy take root; her heritage of conservatism from the Motherland is her safeguard against outrage and anarchy. Canadians are loyal to the British crown and proud of her democracy under British government.

CANADA IS GREAT IN LOYALTY TO KNOWLEDGE

She is no obscurantist; she has her intellectual and scientific life. She is a source of wisdom. With thousands of public schools she has the finest system of education in the world, and ranked in the world's colleges and universities, with nineteen universities attended by 21,000 students, she stands high among the educated nations of the world.

The Christian Science Monitor says of Canada: "Canada is justly proud of its immense resources of forest, field, mine and power, but of her greatest asset Canadians are characteristically voiceless. It is not a somewhat, it is a fact. The thing that is the greatest resource is—Character. As the years roll on the character of Canada will be recognized as the greatest asset of the nation. Let us hope we may deserve such a eulogy."

How can Canada become a great nation? Canada will be great so long as she retains her soul. That is to say so long as she recognizes the superiority of moral and spiritual values over material and physical values, the exhilaration of her rapid growth and the allurement of short roads to success.

We have a great tolerance of evil in political life because of financial advantage, and of taking the path of expediency instead of the highroads of moral reform. We cannot be saved therefrom by our geography or history. Security does not come from the fact that we are located on the highroads of world commerce or because of our isolation from British stock. We pride ourselves in our western civilization but it may be a false pride.

A modern writer says civilization has turned out to be a gigantic and unblinking swindle. Asiatic civilization stood stable 4,000 years, but in less than 400. The World War was a western blot on an Oriental war.

We suffer from the blight of mechanism. We have a machine-making mania, and yet toll is often a drudgery and many are out of work. In home and school, and church and legislature, we are over-run by the same machine and loose the impulse of the kindling fires of individual inspirations. We think more of programmes than of personalities. We are driven by the machines we meant to drive. The political machine grinds to powder the man who seeks to preserve personal purity and personal freedom.

OLDS IS THE BLIGHT, TOO, OF MATERIALISM Europe collapsed because of this, and we see signs of a similar fate for ourselves. Corruption at the fountain-head of legislation; pollution of the liquor traffic poisoning our national life. Family life threatened by increased divorces, wild rushing for pleasure, excitement and short roads to wealth.

"If roads the land to hastening life a few Where wealth accumulates and men decay."

We can only become great as we seek greatness of character. We are rushing toward a Niagara of license and materialism, unless we can be brought to remember that, "Blessed is that nation whose God is the Lord."

Our wasteful expenditures on needless luxuries, our disregard of the Sabbath, our winking at political corruption, our rivers of drink flowing under legal protection and fed by the unfettered desires of sensuous living, will work the corruption of our courts, the ruin of our character, the loss of our national soul. We have cluttered up the road of national progress with excitements, pleasures, useless and wasteful follies, unless we clear our highways, we shall have moral bankruptcy. What does Canada need to avert such a disaster, in legislature, commerce, industry, homes and schools and churches? She needs Him who said long ago to a world He knew so well: "Without me ye can do nothing."

CANADA NEEDS JESUS CHRIST What can Jesus do for Canada? He can show what real life is. He can reveal to us the artificial, unreal view we are taking of the meaning of life. He can show us that we do not possess things but that we are possessed by things. He can show us that we are deceived and have forgotten that "God is not mocked, for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap."

Jesus can put the essential things into life. There are essential things, and we have often put the artificial things where they should be. We need the trust and the sense of wonder of childhood in place of our mistrust and suspicion and our search for extravagant pleasures and commercialized amusements. We have turned to the glare of the world's footlights when we should have sought the glory of God. Jesus can show us how to live a great life. Life to Him was essentially and supremely good. Good enough to stake it, if need be, against all the empty mockeries of the world in a tremendous daring, that would be ready to lose it so as to save it unto life eternal.

We should appreciate His scale of values, and make Him lord of life and then we will discover that even our machinery can be run for spiritual purposes and our material wealth be made to enslave the soul.

Only Jesus can give Canada that balance of mind, body, spirit that will bring her into the future of the world. Above all, Jesus can lead their full consummation at the gates of the City of God.

United Church of Canada

Dr. W. J. Sippell's Subject at Metropolitan United Church Yesterday Morning

Rev. Dr. Sippell, at the Metropolitan Church yesterday morning, reviewed the first year of history of the United Church of Canada, and related in the following connection: "That the union was nothing less than a miracle of Divine grace when one reflects upon the facts of the union, it is a wonder that it ever came about. It was a union of two peoples, of two denominations, a condition God works in spite of rather than in sympathy with."

"Canada will forever remain the pioneer in the project of making a united Christendom. The union was created by the great spiritual task that challenged its leaders and demanded the entrance upon a great spiritual quest under the might and majesty of the leadership of the spirit of God. It was not a search for a larger organization, nor for relief from burdens already borne, but a struggle to realize a richer spiritual experience and a closer fellowship under an inspiration believed to be divine."

"The call of the first council, on June 10, was a call to bring all men to Christ, to promote a closer fellowship with God and cultivate a deeper interest in human welfare. It was an attempt, by a united effort, to set up a new order of things, more effectively permeate the world with the influence of the Gospel of Christ."

The United Church believed that the world was waiting for evidence upon which to found its faith, and it believed the prayer of Jesus to mean that the unity of the Church would convince the world that He was the one sent of God. The Church can heal the wounds of the world only as she can show herself able to heal her own wounds. It seems a rather sad spectacle that confronts the world, when after twenty centuries of Christianity the Christian Church is split into many contending sects and denominations.

THE MATERIAL TASK "The United Church faced the whole missionary task of the three denominations, and it was a task of union with a considerable reduction of her material strength, by reason of the defection of a portion of one denomination unwilling to follow appointed leaders in the pathway of the new spiritual adventure. Moreover, in this defection of the minority some hundreds of more ministers were deprived of their livelihood, by reason of the fact that congregations refused to concur in the decision of their church courts and to proceed to union."

"This defection has incurred great legal expense in the settlement of property rights, but the United Church undertook the whole task of caring for the work, at home and abroad, and asked for a sum of seventy-five per cent. more than the three denominations had given when their strength was still unimpaired. Four million dollars was asked for as a part of the cost of union."

"What is the record of the year? There has been created a great new fellowship, the vision of expanded horizons, and a better understanding as between the previously existing separate units forming the United Church. The financial venture has been a tremendous success. $5,700,000 have been received of the $4,000,000 and the United Church of Canada passes the first milestone of her history, with every task accomplished that she undertook given June 10, with every minister provided for, with every missionary sustained and without a single dollar of indebtedness, a success never before reached by any one of the single denominations working alone."

"And now after the success of this new venture the United Church, well away on the track of another year to promote the interests of a warless world, a universal peace, a

WAR CANOE GIFT OF MALAHATS TO CITY OF VICTORIA

Beautiful Forty-foot Racing Craft is Presented to Citizens

Presented to the City of Victoria as a reminder of the days of their prowess on the water and of the lasting friendship that exists between two races, tribesmen of the Malahat Indians on Saturday gave to the citizens a perfect duplicate of their forty-foot war canoe in which they captured one of the feature races at the Gorge during Saturday's regatta. Malahat's strong-armed paddlers made history for their tribe on Saturday by the manner in which they fought through the races. In one event they paddled first; in another second. With the Westhorne crew they battled river races which defeated these crack canoeists in one major event and at the conclusion of their excellent performance they brought to the judges' float a great, graceful canoe, heaved from the trunk of a single straight tree which had grown on their reservation and had been watched by the eyes of the Malahats since its growth. A perfect tree for the manufacturing of a war canoe. This canoe they gave to the people of Victoria.

Harry, skilled in the craft of boat-making, designer and superintendent of all the Malahat's canoes and the work done on them, had charge of the making of the craft that was given to Victoria's citizens on Saturday. Harry, his face wreathed in smiles, made known his desire during the regatta, that the canoe should be given to the people of Victoria at the conclusion of the Indian races.

Out in the middle of the course, approximately fifty Indian canoeists matched from their war canoes with sparkling eyes and smiling faces the ceremony which they alone understood. Old Chief Cooper, on the judges' barge, knew what was going on, but the majority of persons near at hand did not realize that the Indians were presenting Victoria with a gift which was the pride of their hearts.

The presentation was made with a little flourish, the tribesmen left the gift with the favored citizens, and departed for the long lines of Indian launches up the Arm. Not a sound of applause followed their retreating boats.

MAYOR'S APPRECIATION Mayor Pendray realized the honor being paid the City Fathers. When word of the presentation came to his ears he immediately sought out Chief Cooper and asked him to convey to Harry and the members of the Malahat tribe the city's thanks and appreciation for the splendid example of the tribe's handicraft and for the flattering friendship displayed. To Harry, the designer and maker of the fine craft, Mayor Pendray expressed not only thanks but a high tribute. A man who could make canoes such as the Indians used in their thrilling races, was an expert and a master of his craft, said His Worship.

At the present time the war canoe lies at the J.B.A.A. wharf, alongside the bathhouses in which are stored the rowing club's racing shells. The city has not yet decided what it will do with the canoe, which is absolutely new.

BRIBE IS REPORTED OFFERED TO JUROR

Rumor Regarding Big Liquor Inquiry in Seattle is Investigated

Seattle, May 24.—Possibility that a member of the federal grand jury which May 12, indicted nearly 200 persons for liquor conspiracy here will be bribed in this district court to testify concerning reported offers of a jury fixer to him is a strong probability.

It has been learned W. D. Bollin, chief of the Seattle Department of Justice office, has not finished investigation of a rumor that a juror had been offered $2,500 for information of developments within the jury chamber.

Statements of federal officials that many of the persons indicted had learned they were accused and had left the United States before the jury had completed its work started gave substance to a reported leak. A high Pacific Coast naval officer in the aviation service who left here for California shortly before the indictments were returned is said to be among the accused liquor smugglers.

Fewer than seventy out of the indicted 200 have been arrested.

THOUSANDS WATCH INDIANS BATTLE OVER LONG COURSE IN FORTY-FOOT WAR CANOES

Beautifully-handled Craft, With Eleven Paddles Apiece, Fight for Superiority at Gorge Regatta; Seamen and Shell Oarsmen Compete in Exciting Contests; Boats Throng to Gorge Waters.

Cheering thousands lined the banks along the waters of the Gorge Arm Saturday afternoon to witness what are considered some of the most thrilling events of the year, when the giant Indian war canoes, manned by half-naked paddlers, lined up for their annual speed tests. Nowhere else do Indians race with war canoes as do the Pacific Coast tribesmen. Their races at the Gorge are always a unique feature of Victoria's May-time carnival for this reason, and the Indians who performed on Saturday are masters of their tricky craft as well as men of tremendous stamina and endurance. All of these things together with the picturesque of the men themselves, their arduous and their sportsmanship, combine to complete an event of remarkable interest. The Indians who manned the long narrow war canoes on Saturday afternoon were men of fine physique. The majority were copper-skinned, black-haired boatmen, who shouted hoarse imprecations as they plied their sharp paddles and strained in their task as many years ago their ancestors raced, in their war parties, to attack some hostile neighbor. The war canoes race, like all other events, were run with speed and regularity, and not once was interest allowed to flag.

The officials whose duty it was to see that the whole programme was smoothly and well conducted, deserved high commendation for the able manner in which they managed the regatta.

BRITISH LABOR LEADERS SCORED BY A. J. COOK

Perth, Rhondda Valley, Wales, May 24.—Addressing a miners' demonstration here yesterday, A. J. Cook, secretary of the Miners' Federation, bitterly denounced the Trades Union Council and labor leaders for calling off the recent general strike throughout Great Britain. The calling off of the strike, Secretary Cook declared, was a shameful betrayal and the speeches of Ramsay MacDonald and J. A. Thomas, secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, would be read by the working classes with shame. The Trades Union Council, he said, had left miners stranded, but they intended to continue the struggle.

MACKENZIE'S PARTY DESCENDING THE BELLA COOLA RIVER IN SPOON CANOES

HAVING been hospitably received by the Indians on the Bella Coola River, MacKenzie—being anxious to press onward to the sea—secured from the Chief of the community two "Spoon" canoes, in which to proceed. He comments upon the extreme dexterity of the natives of this place in the use of the paddle, and states that while he had heretofore considered the Canadians to be the best handlers of the paddle in the world, honesty compelled him to give first place to these people. MacKenzie reached the mouth of the Bella Coola River, and salt water, on July 19, 1793, thus completing his journey from the salt water of the Atlantic to the salt water of the Pacific.

The next shows MacKenzie harangued by Indians.

position. So it was the race ended, with the Westholmes a matter of inches ahead of their rivals, the Malahats.

In the second Indian canoe race, in which the Malahats avenged themselves by a victory, in canoes under forty feet, with eleven paddles, and the Kootenaymen's race, with the Indian women entering into the spirit of the thing with every bit as much enthusiasm as their men, the crowds found equal interest. The four paddle event, too, was well contested. The consolation race was a dead heat between Kuper Island and Burrard Inlet.

The J.B.A.A. oarsmen defeated the Vancouver Rowing Club senior crew in a bitterly contested race, and well deserved the plaudits of the great throng which greeted their victory. The four-oar crews were all excellent oarsmen. Coming out of the first heat, Brentwood College eliminated the Vancouver Rowing Club oarsmen. In the second heat, Brentwood's second boat was knocked out of the race by the J.B.A.A. juniors and in the final three winners battled over the gruelling course with commendable ability and endurance. The big, rangy men in the Brentwood shell pulled their colors to victory, however.

In the single sculls L. Locke won the consolation and the championship cup, held last year by W. Locke.

Men of the navy, from H.M.C.S. Patricia and the naval barracks, rowed ships' boats over the half-mile course and showed how British tars can pull a lusty oar. Their events were run off with a splendid finish, the men bending to their task like heroes, and the heavy and gruelling grand wearing the stamina wickedly. Handling the heavy oars in the blunt nosed naval craft is a task for only muscular arms and broad backs. The canoe races, too, resulted in some excellent displays. The tandem canoe race ended in thrilling fashion, after a close struggle with the contestants working with all their energy over the half-mile course. The Indian Brigade oarsmen pulled in navy boats with the same skill and spirit as the seamen and showed the makings of a good oarsman as ever at a thwart. The various committees were as follows: Referee, Commander Nelles and B. C. Nicholas; the judges, David Spence, Major H. R. N. Coburn, J. J. Dunn; starter, Dan J. Miller; prize committee, J. T. Braden, P. Walker, A. Manson; announcer, George W. Allison; recorder, J. Whitcomb; reception committee, Mayor J. Carl Perry; chairman of executive committee, C. H. Sylvester; secretary, and Arthur Manson, chairman of the regatta committee.

All afternoon the band of the 16th Canadian Scottish enlivened the proceedings and filled the intervals with splendid numbers. Hundreds of pleasure craft thronged the Gorge and people lined the banks along the whole course and crowded the finishing zone in thousands.

The regatta results were as follows: Indian war canoes, over forty feet (11 paddles)—1, Westholmes; 2, Malahat; 3, Point Grey. Indian war canoes, under forty feet (11 paddles)—1, Malahat; 2, Westholmes; 3, Squamish. ### ALBERTA INSISTS ON SCHOOL RIGHTS

Legislature Amends Bill For Transfer of Control of Natural Resources

Edmonton, May 24.—The 1926 session of the Legislature of Alberta ended Saturday after a period crowded with interest during which Premier Brownlee made his long-expected statement on the negotiations with the Federal Government for the return to the province of its natural resources. The Premier's statement in effect was that a deadlock had been reached over the school question; that the agreement the Federal Government desired would prevent the province from making any changes in the provincial school system and that Alberta could not accept the agreement unless its rights in the matter of schools were recognized.

Following his statement, the Legislature passed the bill ratifying the agreement, but amended it without division to remove the words in which reference was made to the section of the Alberta act of 1905, which it was contended would bind the province with respect to schools. In place of this section the amendment inserted a phrase that the school lands should be administered for the support of the schools carried on in "accordance with the laws of this province."

The House voted down an amendment by the opposition which would have resulted in six months' delay of the bill and which Premier Brownlee stated would have barred the door to further negotiations in the face of the Federal Government. He declared the passage of the bill as finally amended was plain evidence the Alberta Government and the people of the province generally accepted the terms of the transfer and only differed in a small degree as to the manner in which it was to be brought about. He declared he was ready to resume negotiations at once.

MAY BE DROPPED
Ottawa, May 24 (By Canadian Press).—An official statement is not available here on the new situation which has arisen between Alberta and the Federal Government in respect to the natural resources negotiations, but it is known here that the amendment, passed by the Legislature of Alberta, is not acceptable to many members on the Government of the House.

It is hardly probable the Government will proceed with the measure now before the House. It seems more likely the matter will be dropped for the session so far as the Federal Parliament is concerned.

Like clouded jewels

Pretty teeth hidden by a dingy film coat

Don't hide yours any longer. Accept this remarkable dental test that restores "off-color" teeth to charming whiteness, and makes gums firm and pretty.

JUST because your teeth seem dull, don't believe they are naturally "off color." You can restore them to whiteness quickly. Dental science has made some important discoveries in lightening cloudy teeth—a new method in tooth and gum treatment.

It acts on new principles. In a few days you can work a transforming change on your teeth. Can change your whole appearance. Now a 10-day test is being offered free. Send the coupon.

It's just a skin
ordinary brushing won't end. Run your tongue across your teeth. You will feel a film... a slippery, viscous coating that dulls and clouds their beauty.

Ordinary methods won't successfully combat it. That's why, no matter how hard you try now, your teeth remain "off color."

Whiten teeth, Firm the Gums
Remove that film and what you see will amaze you. You are simply hiding their beauty now... just like grime on ivory.

Film is charged, too, with most tooth and gum troubles. It clings to teeth, gets into crevices and stays. Germs by the millions multiply in it and lay your teeth open to decay. And they, with tartar, are a chief cause of pyorrhea.

Old methods failed in combating it successfully. The new ones were found and embodied in a new-type dentifrice, Pepsodent. It acts to curdle the film and then remove it. Then to firm the gums and protect them.

Send coupon
Results are quick and convincing. Largely on dental advice the world has turned to this new scientific method.

A few days' use will amaze you. The difference will be marked. You will note it. Those with whom you come in contact will note it. You owe clear teeth to yourself. Send the coupon before you forget.

Mexico from Yucatan to Florida, a

Yet this is the flight that many of them have to take every Spring to reach their nesting grounds. From the Gulf coast many of them fly on to northern states or to southern Canada.

Not long after they arrive at their Summer home, Mrs. Hummer starts her nest on the fork of a branch
which promises a firm support.
Rusty down from ferns and weeds
are bound together by the silken lines
from spiders' webs.

Modeling the cup from her breast,
she raises all around a thick, warm wall, and in the deep cup the two tiny eggs are laid.

Over the outside of the nest are placed bits of bark and lichen, bound on with spiders' web, so that the nest, if seen at all, looks like an old knot or burr. Nearly two weeks the mother broods before the tiny babies are hatched.

She feeds them on young spiders
and soft-bodied insects, already partially digested and carefully placed in their tiny throats.

It takes at least three weeks for the young to complete their growth and feathering, so that they can take their first flight home.

A few weeks more, and the whole family is on its way South again.

announced and the meeting place of the next annual or biennial meeting will be considered.

Mrs. A. E. Cole, Port Arthur, will report on housing in the afternoon, and Dr. Margaret Johnston of Toronto will speak on professions and employments for women. Special committees will be appointed, and further resolutions and reports con-

ling by standing the pie dish in another dish containing cold water, before placing in the oven.

Boiled puddings are lighter and more easily digested if made with equal parts of flour and breadcrumbs.

A teaspoonful of cold water added to the batter will insure the lightness of a Yorkshire pudding.

Overseas League—Mr. R. O'Brien, commissioner for the Overseas League, who has been touring Canada and who is at present in Vancouver, will arrive in Victoria on evening at the Chamber of Commerce, following a dinner by the members here. Any one desirous of

VISITING CLUB
WOMEN GUESTS AT
KUMTUKS BANQUET

Local Business Women Hosts
For Annual Celebration; Delightful Programme

Carrying out a custom inaugurated
with much success four years ago,
the Kumtuku Club, on Saturday held its annual banquet, this being the forerunner of a week-end of entertainment in honor of visiting representatives of business women's clubs in the Sound cities. The visitors included over forty delegates from the Business and Professional Women's Clubs of Vancouver, Seattle and Everett, as well as members of the Kumtuku Club.

Nearly 150 attended Saturday's banquet, held in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium. The platform as well as the long tables were charmingly decorated with roses,
mosses, and other early summer
flowers, and each guest at the head table found her bouquet, and a quality favor made by Mrs. W. H. Sweeney. Those seated at the head table included Miss Wigley, president of the Kumtuku Club;
Miss Lawrence, president of the Seattle Kumtuku Club; Mrs. J. A. Sprott, president of the Vancouver B. and P.W. Club; Miss McBride, Seattle; Miss Miller, president of the Vancouver B. and P.W. Club; Miss
Kathleen Campbell, Vancouver; Miss Sturgeon, Everett; Miss Jessie Murray, Miss Bertha Campbell, Miss Lemesurier of Vancouver; Mrs. Edwardson, Mrs. R. W. Mayhew and Mrs. T. J. Goodlake, policy.

PRESIDENT'S WELCOME
Miss Wigley warmly welcomed the visitors and referred to her recent visit to the Everett club, such interchange of visits making for happy relations between the business women of Canada and a set of the United States. Brief addresses were also given by Mrs. R. J. Sprott and Miss Kathleen Campbell of Vancouver, Miss Lawrence and Miss McBride of Seattle, and Mrs. L. B. Brown of all bringing greetings and best wishes from their respective organizations.

Miss Mabel Cameron, vice-president of the Kumtuku Club, in a devoted address paid tribute to the memory of Queen Victoria, who had been one of the finest women and most capable business women in history. She proceeded to enumerate a set of the principles suitable for business women, each commencing with a letter of the word Victoria, and elaborating on the theme in her inspiring address.

Mrs. H. P. Hodges also spoke briefly
for the Kumtuku Club.

MUSICAL NUMBERS
The banquet was interspersed with community singing led by Miss Rita Ormiston, in which the parodies all represented the original words of the members. At the conclusion of the banquet an informal programme was given and a guessing contest,
which created much amusement was won by Mrs. McLeod, Miss Flo Paterson securing the consolation prize.

The programme included songs delightfully sung by Mrs. H. Lassen;
a graceful and spirited Spanish dance by little Maureen Grite of Gutten, complete to tamborine;
an amusing stunt by the Everett visitors, and an equally amusing one by the Vancouver contingent; a song by Miss Doris Bagshaw, and an item
by six members of the Kumtuku Club, entitled "A Buggy Ride," and introducing a number of the old songs.

VISITED MRS. BUTCHART
Yesterday morning the visitors were driven to "Benvenuto," Tod Inlet, where Mrs. Butchart graciously welcomed them and threw open her home and lovely gardens for their entertainment. After a delightful hour, spent in this way, the gathering adjourned to the tea-room conducted by Mrs. Chivers, where a delicious alfresco luncheon was served.
After the afternoon, after the return to town, visitors were again entertained at the home of Miss Wigley, Burdett Avenue. A number of the delegates from the Sound cities left yesterday, and this morning those who remained over visited the Crystal Garden and enjoyed a swim.

BIRTH MARKS
Mrs. H. E. W. writes: "My baby has a small red spot on forehead and eyelid. They were there at birth.
Will they fade out? Is there anything I can do to make them go away?"

ANSWER
It is more than likely that the spots will "grow" away from these places into the hairline and be out of sight. At any rate they will never be any worse. Unless they are very disfiguring I would do nothing about them. It is quite possible to have a doctor to remove them with carbon dioxide.

AN OVERFED BABY
Answer to Mrs. E. D.: It is more than clear that when a baby, who
weighed only seven pounds at birth,
has doubled his weight in three
months he is being badly overfed.
It takes most babies five or six months to double their weight. In addition, you admit that you feed him every two hours. In this one practice is the cause of his overweight, the rush over his eyebrows,
and his croaking every evening.

You should chastise yourself instead of the baby because you are the one at fault. The baby should be fed regularly at 6, 8, 12, 3, 6, 10
and 2, and I am sure if you will adhere to this instead of the two hour nursing periods your troubles will soon be over.

The baby is a fair weight considering his birth weight. He should have some signs of teeth by this time and it would be a good idea to improve his diet by complementary feedings and other foods proper for his age. Will you please send a self-addressed stamped envelope for the leaflet on weaning and feeding.

YOUR BABY and MINE
by MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

You may be keeping the baby too warm or the house too dry and that is causing his cough. Adenoids or an enlarged thymus gland may be at fault. Keep some water in pans on the radiators in order to improve the air in the house.

Mrs. J. N. S. writes: "Will you tell me if these are the proper measurements for a child nearly two years old. His height is 34 inches, head 19½, chest 20½, 24
inches 21½."

ANSWER
These measurements are quite all right.

Answer to Mrs. E. D.: It is more than clear that when a baby, who
weighed only seven pounds at birth,
has doubled his weight in three
months he is being badly overfed.

CHARLESTON DANCE TO FEATURE FROLIC
Competition Will Be Held on Stage on Yates Street

A Charleston contest will be one of the outstanding features of the street frolic to be held on Yates Street to-night. The original programme called for a Charleston exhibition Saturday night only but this item of the programme was so well received by the thousands who enjoyed the frolic that it was decided to stage another contest to-night.

Two men and six girls danced Saturday and were heartily cheered as they went through the difficult and intricate steps of the latest and strenuous dance. Many entries were received for the contest to be staged this evening and more are invited to hand in their names to W. H. Davies to-night. The dancers will appear on the platform on Yates and Blanshard Streets with a full band supplying the music.

Never wet a soot stain. Cover the stain with salt and brush off with a stiff brush. Repeat until the stain disappears.

WHY HAIR FALLS OUT
Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a 35-cent bottle of KOTEX at any drug store.
Pour a little in your hand and rub well into the scalp. After a few applications all dandruff disappears
and the hair stops coming out.

U.S. CLUBWOMEN
MEET TO DISCUSS
HOME PROBLEMS

General Federation of Clubs
Gather at Atlantic City;
7,500 Women Present

Atlantic City, N.J., May 24.— Seventy-five hundred homes in the United States were being abandoned by their virtual heads to their nominal heads to-day, as women from all parts of the country came here to consider in biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, the problem of the home.

The "official family" will be practically complete to-night with the official banquet, which will take place with Miss Florence Dier of Philadelphia, presiding. The features of the pre-convention dinner
have been kept a secret.

At St. John's Church, Duncan, on Saturday morning, the marriage was solemnized of Kathleen Mary Goddard and Henry Allan Maynard Denny, Rev. A. B. Bichlager performed the ceremony. Mr. W. A.
Willett presided at the organ, and Mr. F. A. Bromfield acted as best man. The service was choral, presided by Queen Margaret's School, of which Miss N. Denny, B.R.C., sister of the groom, is one of the principals.

Harvard Men Using
"Iolanthe" as Test
of Girls' Eligibility

Boston, May 24.—William Williams, Strophon of Winthrop Amen's production of "Iolanthe," has discovered that his Harvard friends have been using "Iolanthe" as a Lydia stone to test out young women, admirable in every other way to see if they would be possible
life companions.

Being Harvard men, they delight in the delicious humor of Gilbert and the sly melodies of Sullivan, and look fearfully upon a young woman who cannot share their enthusiasm.
So many an innocent-seeming invitation to "Iolanthe" is nothing less than a trout. If she laughs, all is well; otherwise "Iolanthe" becomes a tragedy of unrequited love.

New Guinea Shark
Saint to Natives

London, May 24.—The shark is a patron saint in New Guinea.
Dr. J. H. Sandford Jackson, Jr., medical officer of the mandated territory that once was the property of Germany, says that each group of natives has its particular pet shark, called "Masel" or "good fairy."

The legend runs that the shark,
after the burial of a native at sea,
hastens to hide the body among the coral rocks.

The danger of going near other folk's sharks are recognized, the natives believing that such invaders
are attacked.

The mulfish has a huge fin which stands up from its back like a sail.

Cheaper Rubber Soon For Canada as Dutch Break Down Monopoly

Seattle, May 24.—R. S. Lipper, Singapore manager for the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company, predicted here to-day that a monopoly held by Great Britain on crude rubber will be broken within a year and that prices of rubber products in the United States and Canada will greatly decrease within that period of time.

Mr. Lipper, a director of crude rubber purchases for his company, arrived here to-day from the Far East on route to his home in Pennsylvania on a vacation.

He said that natives of Dutch possessions in the East had begun extensive cultivation of rubber and will break the monopoly of the British output. Effects of the Dutch output on the market have already been noted by buyers, he asserted.

Mr. Lipper said that the Dutch, he declared, "literally went crazy overnight in their planting of rubber. The rubber fever spread like wildfire and looks like the golden rule will break British control of the product."

CHICAGO GRAIN

Chicago, May 24.—Fear of big swings in wheat prices this week forced a 5c advance in margins required to maintain outstanding accounts in the May delivery.

Chicago, May 24.—(By B. C. Bond Corporation's direct pit wire) Wheat prices averaged somewhat higher with May fluctuating rather erratically within relatively narrow limits, but trade being in way of evening up. Somewhat less favorable crop reports from the southwest with claims of deterioration in northern Kansas and attention was also paid to reports of dry and hot weather in Oklahoma. Owing to weather and Winnipeg export demand for cash wheat at seaboard was very slow. Liverpool and other markets will be opened to-morrow. Liberal short covering was in evidence in deferred deliveries here.

Corn: Averaged somewhat lower. Deliveries of 483,000 bushels on May contracts led to some selling which found support lacking. Corn planting about completed and trade looking for larger movements in near future. Country offerings show tendency to increase. Oats sold within a very narrow limit. Unfavorable crop comments coming from Ohio.

Veterans Now Lone Team in Connaught Cup Competition

Victory Over South Hill Followed by Esquimalt's Defeat, Leaves One Team in

Vets Outscore Visitors But Bridges Saved Them Many Times; Play on Mainland

Victoria is now playing a lone hand in the Connaught Cup series. When Esquimalt were eliminated in Vancouver on Saturday by Shells one of the Capital's two aces was smothered by a joker. The Veterans, however, were able to put a stranglehold on the South Hill eleven, of Vancouver, at the Royal Athletic Park on Saturday and as a result, Victoria still has a club running strongly in the series.

TO PLAY ON MAINLAND

The British Columbia Football Association met in Nanaimo on Saturday night and the draw for the third round of the competition was made. This calls for the Veterans traveling to the mainland. They will meet the winner of the game between Westminster United and Cranmo.

The rest of the draw is as follows:

Canadian Colliers vs. St. Salvours or North Shore.

Nanaimo or Salvoeur Engineering Works vs. Shells.

Empire Stevedores vs. Sapperton or Stevenson.

The Canadian Colliers won their game on Saturday in the second round by defeating Variety 4-0.

The Veterans had a fair edge on South Hill in their match on Saturday, especially in the second half when they were almost continually on the attack. The Veterans were favored with an early lead when Mirfield and Phillips rushed in two clever goals within the first ten minutes.

South Hill were faced with what proved a hopeless task, but they provided plenty of thrills for the big crowd of fans. Only thrilling saves by Tom Bridges, the Vets' goalie, prevented the visitors from scoring. They attacked hotly at times, but were driven back. Their shooting was wild and this also helped the Vets' back division. Even when they were penalized for "hands" in the forbidden area, and Campbell, who took the kick, tried to drive the ball through the net with the result that it went high and hit the bar. When the ball flew back into play Henkel had a chance to drive it home but Bridges pulled one of his sensational saves.

CLARKSON DID WELL

In the second half the Veterans were on the offensive much of the time, but despite many fine centres by Clarkson, they could not score. Clarkson had two fine openings and outran the visiting backs in Lavery and Peden. Cummings, Cameron, Mirfield, Phillips and Clarkson, all in himself each time. Clarkson, however, finally dropped a centre at the toe of Cameron, who drove a whistler into the net for the Veterans' last goal.

In a final effort to prevent a whitewash South Hill closed fast and they were aware of the fact that they were on the penalty line. Campbell scored easily, Bridges failing to reach the flying sphere.

McMillan refereed and the teams were:

Victoria: Veterans—Bridges; Campbell and Allen; Preston, McCormick and Peden; Cummings, Cameron, Mirfield, Phillips and Clarkson.

South Hill—Lavery; Campbell and Pyper; Miller, Laskie and Phillips; Thorwell, Bloom, Woolridge, Henkel and Cunliffe.

Vancouver, May 23—Shells scored two goals in a bitterly fought overtime battle to defeat Esquimalt four-two and enter the next round of the Connaught Cup football competition here on Saturday afternoon.

The visitors led the score in the dying moments of the last period but could not withstand the attacks of the breadmen in the overtime session.

Sheldon headed in from a corner, beautifully taken by Esquimalt, four minutes after resumption of play in the first overtime period. Finlayson, outside right of Shells, scored the prettiest goal of the game in the first minute of the last overtime session when he took a cross from Lange and drove the ball into the net from the eight-yard line.

Van Watt scored both goals for Victoria.

Montreal, May 24—The first round in the provincial elimination Saturday for the Connaught Cup, emblematic of the football championship of the country, saw five of the eight games bringing a decisive result. One game that between Gurney and Woodhall, went to a scoreless draw.

Results were:

Lachine 6, Canadian Pacific Recs. 1, Canadian National 2, St. Paul Town 3.

Lachine Crusaders 1, Canadian National 2.

Nomads 0, Canadian National Recs. 2.

Gurney 0, Woodhall 0.

LOMSKI VS. MALONE

Seattle, May 24—Matchmaker Nate Druxman announced here last night that he had signed Leo Lomski, of Aberdeen, and Jack Malone, of St. Paul, for a six-round bout in the Seattle baseball park, June 15, for the middleweight championship of the Pacific Coast. Malone was defending the title, which was formerly held by Lomski.

COLORADO STILL A HEAVY FAVORITE FOR DERBY, JUNE 2

London, May 24 (Canadian Press Cable)—The betting odds quoted on Colorado to win the Esplanade Derby, run on June 2, were as second public choice at 7 to 1, while Sir Abe Bailey's Lox, at 9 to 1, is third.

Cornach, Lord Woolavington's representative in the Derby, re-enters as second public choice at 7 to 1, while Sir Abe Bailey's Lox, at 9 to 1, is third.

Oxford Cricketers Do Poorly Against Australian Eleven

Stephenson Only Batsman to Make Good Score; Side All Out For 131 Runs

Australians With Three Wickets Down, 35 Runs in Arrears When Play Stops

Oxford, England, May 24 (Canadian Press Cable)—The seventh game of the Australian touring cricketers here was marked by a return of Summer weather and 5,000 spectators turned out to witness the match between the tourists and Oxford University.

On the whole, the game was slow. Oxford were placed on the defensive from the start, and they were practically impotent against the slow and accurate play of Leicesters.

It was the vigorous punching strokes of Stephenson that furnished the brightest interlude in the game and of the entire match. Leicesters were the only player to display any aggressiveness.

As a matter of contrast, Oxford's fast bowling presented little threat to the Australians, who found Serrurier and Holmes for many robust strokes.

Stephenson was the heaviest scorer of the first, reaching five short of the half century before he was caught out by Ponsford off Richardson, next in line came C. H. Taylor, who played for Leicesters with 54. None of the Australians had reached this last figure before the play closed on Saturday.

Oxford were sent in by Serrurier and Stewart-Brown. The innings opened poorly with Serrurier's stumps falling to Ryder at 2. He was succeeded by Leicesters, who played a cautious play, but the Holmes-Stewart-Brown partnership ended when the latter's wicket was taken with a slow curving ball by Richardson.

MADE A STAND

Something like a stand was staged between Holmes and Taylor, and runs came with greater frequency. There was, however, a lack of confidence in the dark blues' batting and it came as nothing of a shock when Holmes was retired by Taylor off Grimmett.

Leicesters added little to Oxford's hopes, accompanying Taylor for a brief space before Richardson crashed his wicket. However, the defence was by no means ready to yield and Stephenson took the bat with a fixed determination to fight the bowling. This attitude proved to be the only one that would effectively control the situation and playing vigorously but carefully, Stephenson began to force the score up. The visitors' misfortune in being retired before wicket.

J. V. Richardson had a brief tour before his name came to the pavilion. Buttermore's turn was tedious, Malcoly doing his best to yield and Stephenson took the bat with a fixed determination to fight the bowling. This attitude proved to be the only one that would effectively control the situation and playing vigorously but carefully, Stephenson began to force the score up. The visitors' misfortune in being retired before wicket.

FOUND THINGS EASY

The visitors began their innings by sending in their vice captain, V. Ambler, with Woodfull. They had little difficulty with the fast balls of both McCann and Serrurier. They played easily, too easily, perhaps, for Ambler had attained thirty and looked for many more, when McCann took his stumps.

Ponsford entered on the scene and the crowd settled down to an era of heavy hitting. One of the surprises of the game came when Ponsford's wicket fell at four and the Victorian made way for Andrews.

Little time had been left, however, and the first day's play ended shortly after with the Australians only 35 runs in arrears for three wickets. Andrews and Taylor resume Monday.

BRIBE PLAN TO FREE PRISONER FAILURE

Funds Lacking, So Russell Scott in Shadow of Gallows in Chicago

Chicago, May 24.—A charge that Russell Scott could have escaped from the Chester Prison for the Criminal Inmate on payment of $5,000 and that failure to raise the funds brought about the official declaration last week that he was sane and must be hanged for murdering a drug clerk during a robbery, was made today by his wife, Catherine Scott, through William Scott Stewart, attorney for the former Canadian financier during his trial.

She told of fruitless efforts to obtain the $5,000 her husband had urged her to collect.

TO APPEAR IN COURT

Chicago, May 24.—Death by hanging for the murder of a drug clerk in 1923 will face Russell Scott, Canadian financier, who turned robber, for the fourth time when he is returned from the Chester Asylum and arraigned before Judge William V. Brothers in criminal court to-morrow morning. Scott, saved from execution by a jury which found him insane a few hours before his death march, last week was declared sane by three state alienists.

A petition for a writ of habeas corpus filed by the state on Saturday and directed to Dr. Frank A. Stubbelfield, superintendent of the Chester Asylum, was made returnable to-morrow to open new lanes in Scott's path, which so far has led him through high financing, robbery, sentence of death for the murder of Joseph Maurer, the drug clerk, two last-minute stays of execution granted by the Governor of Illinois, temporary safety when judged insane by a jury, and jeopardy to his life through the findings of the state alienists.

WITHOUT PRECEDENT

Confronted by a legal situation without precedent in Illinois, because of a court ruling that should Scott regain his sanity he should be returned to Chicago and hanged, state and defense attorneys to-day are formulating their procedure for to-morrow.

William Scott Stewart, attorney, who represented Russell Scott and who will also represent his brother, Robert Scott, when he is tried for the same crime, said he would continue to fight to save Russell from the gallows.

That another sanity hearing, before a jury of laymen would be asked for was forecast by attorneys, although it was not announced whether the request would come from the state or the defense. The

Excitement is Wrench Tossed Into Our Digestive Machine

By DR. HUGH S. CUMMING

It has long been recognized that various emotions are accompanied by special facial expressions. Certain kinds of feeling, especially the happy kind, help the proper functioning of the organs while others have an unfavorable action.

The energy for our activities comes from food. From meat, milk, eggs, cereals, vegetables, fruits and greens we get sufficient protein for tissue building material, sufficient starches and sugar for energy, sufficient fats, mineral matter, vitamins, and water to enable the body to work well and to keep up its power to offset injurious agencies.

With a limited diet there is lack of proper building material, lack of proper mineral balance and of vitamins. These dangers are especially marked when the diet is made up mainly of highly milled cereals such as soda biscuits, white bread made without milk and yeast, white rice and similar articles, but these articles of diet are efficiently utilized by our bodies if mingled with meat, milk, greens and fruits which supply their deficiencies.

DIGESTION

Given a fair chance, the human system digests the food, assimilates the digested products and re arranges the absorbed material with a precise and admirable harmony in which the various organs and cells interplay.

This harmony begins even at the sight of food and with pleasant surroundings continues until the food is utilized for any activity we desire. This may be seen in the watering of the mouth which is but a preparatory stage in digestion.

As a result of the sight, smell, taste and feel of food in the mouth, a message is sent to the stomach, a flow of digestive juice is started and the digestive processes are enabled to go on without delay. In a like

BRITISH STRIKE NOW IS IN FOURTH WEEK

Coal Miners and Owners as Far Apart as They Were May 1

London, May 24.—The fourth week of the coal miners' strike in Great Britain finds the mine owners and mine workers apparently as far from a settlement of their dispute as when the strike began.

The miners, if the words of their general secretary, A. J. Cook, may be taken as a criterion of their feelings, are bitterly resentful of the action of the Trades Union Congress in ending the general strike called in sympathy with the miners.

CALLED BETRAYAL

Mr. Cook, in a speech in the Rhondda Valley in Wales yesterday, asserted the cessation of the general strike was a shameful betrayal of the miners and that recent speeches of the former Labor Premier, Ramsay MacDonald, and J. H. Thomas, secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, urging the miners to relax their demands would be read with shame by people of the world. He said the Council of the Trades Union Congress had left the miners stranded, but they intended to continue the struggle.

Emmeline Pankhurst, the militant suffragette, is authorizing for the statement that had a secret ballot been taken by the wives of the coal miners a strike would never have been declared.

MUCH SUFFERING

In the Merthyr Valley in Wales, women and children are bearing the brunt of the fight of the men. The women, without grumbling, almost savagely are carrying out the task of feeding their large families, even though wages or strike pay are not forthcoming. As against the usual $10.50 weekly income when the men are employed, each housewife now has a weekly allowance of $2.75 from the county guardians. Daily the miners in South Wales are besieging union headquarters for relief, but the strike committees assert their funds are nearly exhausted.

High Commissioner de Jouvenal is also reported as desirous of granting amnesty throughout Syria provided all arms are laid down within a period of twenty days.

Paris, May 24.—Abd-el-Krim's military power has collapsed, according to a communique on the Moroccan campaign issued by the Ministry of War. The tribes whose allegiance he has retained by threats of reprisals are gradually being detached from him, the communique adds.

French partisans occupy the whole region north and west of Targuist, Abd-el-Krim's former capital, while French regulars, covered on their right by cavalry patrolling between Targuist and Andir, now are holding Touzele, it is stated.

Fez, May 24.—Targuist, one of Abd-el-Krim's former strongholds, and the surrounding region, were occupied by French troops yesterday morning. This announcement was made in an official communique.

UPON the hill-top your vision grows. For miles and miles you see the work of man and nature. Down in the valley your view is limited by the hills, by your neighbor's home—by the store across the way.

This newspaper—properly used—will guide you to the hill-top. Read it and your vision is enlarged. You get a bird's-eye view of world events. You glimpse all the doings of the days.

Fail to use it, and your view is limited to the things around home. You remain in ignorance, not only of events here and abroad, but of much that concerns you even more vitally—news of the very things that have to do with your personal every-day life.

Someone might be selling a new, better and more economical food; or a utensil that would add immeasurably to your comfort and well-being; or some better materials for shoes or clothing—but you would never know, because of your restricted view.

You may read every line of the news, but if you overlook the advertising, you are still living in the valley. You remain uninformed about many things you ought to know in order to live a happy, useful, profitable life in this age of progress.

Rex Beach Film
of Alaskan Era
Full of Thrills

"The Barrier," Dramatically
Filmed by George Hill, Now
At Dominion

Replete with thrills, beautiful photography and splendid acting by a notable cast of principals, "The Barrier," the Metro-Goldwyn Mayer production of Rex Beach's novel, opened to-day at the Dominion Theatre.

Beach's stirring novel of the Alaskan frontier, where the veneer of civilization dropped from men through their lust for gold, has been transferred to the screen with praise-worthy fidelity by Director George Hill. The work of the director is ably seconded by such popular screen stars as Norman Kerry, Lionel Barrymore, Henry B. Walthall, Marcelline Day, Pat Harmon, Bert Woodruff and others. So well do these players acquit themselves that they fully deserve the title of the season's best cast.

Norman Kerry and Marcelline Day are the focus of romantic interest in the picture. As Lieutenant Meade Burrell, the haughty action of a proud Virginia family, Kerry is superb. Marcelline Day, a half-breed girl whom he believes white, as he does the girl herself, having been raised as the daughter of Gale, the kindly old trader, portrayed convincingly by Henry B. Walthall.

ed to-day. The production, an entertaining comedy as we have ever seen, is Hines' initial picture under his new First National contract, and judging from the calibre of this offering, the company and the star are to be congratulated upon the success of their alliance.

Produced by C. C. Burr and directed by Charles Hines, "The Live Wire" was adapted from Richard Washburn Child's novel, published under the title of "The Game of Lights." In the supporting cast are such notables as Edmund Breese, J. Barney Sherry, Mildred Ryan, Bradley Barker and Flora Finch.

"The Live Wire" relates the exploits of "The Great Marneville," enacted by the comedian, who is a star wire performer in a circus. He suffers an injury and then goes down the ladder of fame until he loses his job and becomes a "gentleman of the road."

In his travels along the countryside he strikes up a partnership with "Sawdust Al" and the two meet with many ludicrous and hair-raising adventures.

"Nothing But the Truth" is Coliseum
Holiday Attraction

Bob Bennett Clings to the Truth
For Twenty-four Hours

Way back in classical history an old gentleman went looking for "Truth" with a lantern. And the modern version of this theme concerns a young man who takes on a bet to speak "the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth" for twenty-four hours. Says his father-in-law elect: "Nobody has ever done it yet—but you might be the first."

However, he cheerfully wagers $10,000 against the young man's chances of succeeding.

So Bob Bennett starts on his valiant attempt. In ordinary circumstances his task would be difficult enough, but when his friends all join hands in an attempt to force him from the narrow path of truth, it would seem impossible that he should succeed.

And succeed he does, though asked such embarrassing questions as "what do you truthfully think of that lady's voice?" or "do you think my hat is becoming?"

Still there is one compensation that Bob gets out of being forced to tell truth, for which the little girl he loves asks him "what do you think of me?"

Lee Marvenga and some of the student male ensemble in 'The Student Prince,' Royal, May 31 and June 1 and 2.

he has to say the words that bashfulness has hitherto prevented.

"Nothing But the Truth" is a well-known comedy, and the most brilliant for many years. It is another of those plays which quickly become famous, being played for long seasons simultaneously in London and New York, whilst it is still being played by leading road and stock companies all over the English-speaking world.

It contains the famous "innocent girl" speech, which is one of the play's funniest features, a chorus girl being bribed by a jealous wife to "tell the truth"—and the girl incents a story well worth the $200 bribe she receives.

"Nothing But the Truth," which is on the bill at the Coliseum from tonight, is a great comedy that never misses and will be found to be just the happy joy show for those in holiday mood.

As a special musical attraction Jack Findler will present his orchestra every evening during this week at the Dominion.

This will be the last theatre appearance of this popular band this season, as immediately they start on their summer tour playing on the Princess steamers. Their programme promises to be something out of the ordinary, and includes the following: "Good Night," fox trot; "Waters of the Perfection," Paul Whiteman's latest hit played for the first time in Victoria; "Horses," a new novelty number; "My Bundle of Love," and a new arrangement of "By the Waters of Minnetonka," presented as a rhythmic classic. The Dominion management has received numerous requests for some of the popular numbers played by this orchestra on its previous appearance at the Do-

Now at Columbia

Screen Comedian Makes Laughs
Out of Heartaches and Tragedies

An artistic genius and a sense of humor that can convert tears and heartaches into joy and laughter that can cause the tear of pathos to lose itself in the wrinkles of fun—is a combination seldom met in real life, and much less often encountered on the motion picture screen.

But this is just what Charlie Chaplin does in his new film comedy, "The Gold Rush," a United Artists Corporation release, which is described by picture experts and competent critics as the greatest Chaplin comedy ever produced. "The Gold Rush" comes to the Columbia Theatre to-day and all week.

Out of a situation where a half-starved wanderer throws himself into a self-enforced faint at the door of a gold prospector's cabin, so the prospector will pick him up, carry him inside and revive him with hot coffee and a much needed meal, Chaplin builds a comedy scene that is said to excel anything he has ever done.

"The Gold Rush" deals with the stampee into the Klondike, and Chaplin has cast himself in the role of a tenderfoot and lone prospector. And when he tears himself from the mob of thousands of prospectors crossing the Chilkoot Pass only stubbornly to go his own lonely way through a blizzard that shreds his shabby clothing and finally blows him like a piece of paper into the cabin of a fugitive from justice—again tragedy is turned into hilarious comedy.

CAPITOL QUARTETTE
POPULAR ADDITION TO
CAPITOL PROGRAMME

The management of the Capitol Theatre have received nothing but praise from the patrons during the last two weeks for the splendid programme presented by the Capitol quartette. The numbers rendered by them seem to have been received with more than the usual enthusiasm. The programme as selected by them this week retains the high standard that they have set for themselves. The numbers to be rendered by them are as follows:

"For You—Alone" (Carl Bandach).
"Indian Love Call" (Theo. Pennington).
"Always" (Harry Pfeil).
"In the Garden of Tomorrow" (Clare McKinley).
"At Dawning" (Theo. Pennington and Harry Pfeil).

In addition to this the Municipal Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire will present every evening in tabular form, the three areas of Queen Victoria. As everybody is aware the week of May 24 is Empire week, and the Daughters of the Empire feel that this is a fitting way to keep the public informed of this important event. The orchestra will be in attendance as usual afternoon and evening.

No More Piles

Thousands Bless Dr. Leonhardt, the Physician Who Discovered This Common Sense Remedy

If you think that the surgeon's knife is the only method of escape from the misery of piles, it's because you haven't heard of the new treatment known as Dr. Leonhardt's HEM-ROID.

The Doctor's treatment is internal. By experimenting for years he discovered the exact cause of piles and then went further and compounded a remedy that would remove the cause.

Dr. Leonhardt waits every sufferer to benefit by his discovery and so that there will be no doubting or delay, Vancouver Drug Company and all druggists are authorized to sell HEM-ROID with guarantee that it will do as stated or money back.

On that honorable basis every sufferer should secure a package of Dr. Leonhardt's HEM-ROID today.
